

Door & Frame Applications

Full Overlay

Face frame stiles and rails will be 1 1/2" wide. The door will be positioned fully over the face frame with 1/8" reveal at the cabinet ends and 1/8" reveal between paired doors.

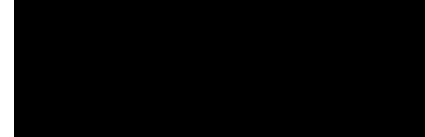

Quarter Overlay

Face frame stiles and rails will be 1 1/2" wide. The doors will be positioned 1/4" over the face frame with 1 1/4" reveal at cabinet ends. Paired doors will have 1" reveal and butt doors (no center stile) will have 1/8" reveal.

Lip

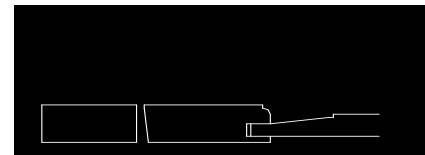

Face frame stiles and rails will be 1 1/2" wide. The doors will be positioned 1/4" over the face frame with 1 1/4" reveal at cabinet ends. Paired doors will have 1" reveal and butt doors (no center stile) will have 1/8" reveal.

Flush Inset

Face frame stiles and rails will be 1 1/2" wide. The door will be positioned within the face frame opening to remain flush with the front of the face frame. A 3/32" reveal between the door and face frame is standard.

Add 5% to cabinet price.

Beaded Inset

Face frame stiles and rails will be 1 1/2" wide. The door will be positioned within the face frame opening to remain flush with the bead. The interior portion of the face frame opening shall have a milled 1/4" wide, integral bead. A 3/32" reveal between the door and the face frame is standard.

Add 10% to cabinet price.

